OPEN HOUSE VOLUNTEER BREAKFAST

Have you cooked a meal or brought ingredients for one of our teachers' lunches this year? Have you volunteered in the media center, or served lunches to students? Did you help at registration, the GECO Fundraiser, or helping at Afterprom? Did you sit at a table selling poinsettias, typing the student directory, or proofreading it? Have you helped given a reading test or in the classroom?

Then, please enjoy breakfast and an espresso or latte on us, and join us on Wed., June 2nd on your way to work or when dropping off your kids, anytime between 7:00 and 9:00 AM in the Media Center.

WE APPRECIATE OUR VOLUNTEERS!

THANK YOU CSAP VOLUNTEERS!

To all of you who so generously donated the food for the teachers' dinners and to Donna Maughan, Theresa Collins and Gina Cox on the hospitality team for serving them. It was delicious and so appreciated! And to all of the volunteers who came in to serve our students lunch:

ATTENTION PARENTS:

We encourage every parent to attend the "ALIVE at 25" Forum on APRIL 29, 2004. (please see page for more details.) Students will be attending an assembly and given the opportunity to sign up for one of three "Alive at 25" classes which are being held on April 15, 22, and 29 from 3:00pm - 7:00pm with a dinner break. Registration is limited and will take place in the commons area during lunch hours. It is $25 and worth every penny when saving the lives of our kids!
